Ready to begin your leadership journey?

Full-time MBA:

Our Full-time MBA program is designed in a modular format, with each semester broken into two eight-week modules. This format allows you to complete your MBA in 16 months, instead of the traditional two-year format. Plus, we offer core classes that cover topics such as accounting, marketing, financial analysis, business strategy, human resources, operations management and data analytics.

"I think the MBA gave me a really broad understanding of business. Just understanding what the executives were talking about and where their pain points were really helped me put myself in their shoes."

– Ellen Maetzold, '20

Online MBA:

Designed to provide maximum flexibility, the OU Online MBA allows rising and experienced professionals from a variety of industries and backgrounds to complete their MBA anywhere. This program offers real-time classes that give you the opportunity to interact with your professors and classmates.

“Your time management skills are sharpened from an Online MBA. It teaches you when to say no, and how to allocate your time. This program could push people to understand their limits and get more out of life. It’s going to teach you how to maintain your boundaries.”

– Randall Willbanks, ‘21

Professional MBA:

A demanding work life shouldn’t prevent you from earning your MBA. Taught by the same world-class faculty as our Full-time MBA, this program offers evening courses to provide flexibility while you pursue your education. In addition, this MBA offering allows you to apply classroom insights to your career in real time.

Lastly, you will benefit from a strong peer-to-peer and alumni network to support you as an MBA student, in your current job and throughout your career.

Executive MBA in Aerospace & Defense:

Taught by industry leaders and renowned OU faculty, this program provides students with the strength to synthesize concepts and integrative thinking between A&D functions and business. A key benefit of this program is the ability to take courses online, which allows you to manage your job and life responsibilities while pursuing your educational and professional goals.

“Being able to work full time...and be able to actually have...that family time...The faculty understand that and will work with us to maintain that work-life balance.”

– Martell Davis, ‘21

Executive MBA in Energy:

Prepare to be a part of the next generation of leaders and decision-makers in the ever-evolving energy industry. This 100% energy-focused program offers two specializations: Renewables and Hydrocarbons. As a 15-month hybrid program, you’ll participate in three in-person residency weeks, one of which is in Europe, and six online modules.

Mini-MBA for Leading Change and Innovation:

Accelerate your ability to drive immediate impacts as a leader in an age of innovation and disruptive change. This program is designed for people leaders (up to Director-level) and individual contributors tasked with navigating change in companies focused on innovation.

The Mini-MBA for Leading Change and Innovation is a great fit for anyone without formal business or leadership training seeking to have a greater effect on their company.

PhD in Business Administration:

Our PhD programs are crafted to provide you with the advanced expertise and skills essential for excellence in your chosen discipline. We offer a variety of doctoral programs tailored to your specific research interests and career aspirations. Whether your passion lies in accounting, finance, marketing or another area of business, we have the ideal program to help you reach your potential.

Graduate Certificate in the Foundations of Business:

This certificate is designed for graduate students in fields outside of business, such as health care, to gain an understanding of core business principles, develop frameworks for analyzing business practices and gain a broader perspective by interacting with business professionals and academics. Students in the certificate program will take courses alongside graduate business students, including those in the MBA, Master of Accountancy and Master of Information Technology programs, fostering a collaborative learning environment with insights from both peers and faculty.
